

Fire Suppression System Supervisor

. Manages the fire alarm detection maintenance program for facilities. Has the overall responsibility for the maintenance and management of fire alarm systems. Responsible for development of a maintenance, test and inspection program, compliant with DOD and NFPA regulations. Develop a scope of work required for system repair, maintenance, or expansion of alarm systems. Oversee work for system repair, maintenance, or expansion, ensuring equipment provided and installed complies with the current NFPA standards and the National Electrical Code. Plans and directs lead alarm technician's workload, performs quality assurance checks providing written reports to fire management. Supervises and documents acceptance testing of fire alarm systems. Coordinates work schedule and requirements with supervisors, schedules appointments for testing repair and maintenance of fire alarm systems with facility custodians.

Basic requirements

- High school diploma / GED equivalent, or an equivalent combination of education and experience, and a minimum of 10 years related experience.
- Requires the job knowledge, skill level and physical ability necessary to perform assigned job functions.
- Must be a U.S. Citizen
- Must have a Secret Security Clearance
- Performs installation, inspections, testing, maintenance, repairs, and replacements of fire detection and alarm systems for all fire protection equipment and systems located in AASAB.
- National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) qualified Fire Alarms Systems personnel perform fire protection systems and exhaust suppression systems (hoods and ducts systems) inspection, maintenance, and repair; fire alarms technicians are embedded within the Electrical Section for daily operations.
- Must be NICET Level II certified.
- Position may be located in a wide variety of environments, from conventional indoor office workspace to project worksites with harsh, working and living conditions.
- To ensure compliance with safety, health and security requirements in the contract, employee will possess the ability to read, write, speak, and understand the English language at the intermediate level as necessary to perform assigned job functions.
- Position requires the basic skills and physical ability necessary to perform assigned job functions.
- Prior military and/or contingency experience is a plus.

As directed by management, may supervise employees or subcontractor personnel in accordance with the "General Supervisory Duties and Responsibilities" addendum.